Hawks Hill Creamery to Host Harford's Annual Farm Visitation Day

(Bel Air, MD) - - The Harford County Farm Bureau will hold its annual Farm Visitation Day on Sunday, June 29 from 2pm to 5pm at Hawks Hill Creamery, 805 Highland Road in Street, Maryland.

Hawks Hill Creamery is a dairy farm owned by Allen and Kim Galbreath near the rural village of Highland. The Galbreath family sells ice cream from their mobile trailer and cheese in local grocery stores and farmers' markets. They also hold seasonal events such as their popular Pumpkin Fest on weekends in the fall.

The farm has been in the Galbreath family since 1924, and has been permanently preserved through Harford County's nationally-recognized ag preservation program. Harford County has over 47,000 acres of preserved farmland, ranking in the top ten out of more than 3,000 counties in the nation.

Visitors will have the opportunity to see farm animals and equipment, take a look inside the milking parlor, and participate in fun and educational activities. Hawks Hill Creamery ice cream and cheese will also be available.

For more information on Farm Visitation Day, contact the Harford County Farm Bureau office at 410-836-7773 or visit the Division of Ag's website at www.harfordfarms.com.
